Requirements Prior to Class

Current Illinois laws require that EVERY person performing Permanent Cosmetics (tattooing) whether a student or seasoned professional, must FIRST acquire an Illinois Body Artist Operator Permit before you can attend any class and perform treatments on any client, and must perform only in a licensed tattoo establishment.

- 1) The Aphrodite Academy of Permanent Cosmetics/Aphrodite Skin Care LLC is registered by the State of Illinois Department of Public Health as a Body Art Business Establishment license #102988.
- 2) The student must obtain an Illinois Body Artist Operator Permit, 1st step is to complete an Illinois -approved Blood Borne Pathogens (BBP) course and exam, and then apply for Body Artist Operator Permit through the state of Illinois Health Department.

Candidates may take the blood borne pathogens course in person or online for small fee. Search on-line for Blood Borne Pathogens course and exam. Example of two website addresses listed here ... www.probloodborne.com/en/ , or www.onlinepcrcertification.net/bloodborne-pathogens-training-certification.php

- 3) You must have a BBP certificate of training (to send in) when applying for Illinois Body Artist Operator Permit. Contact Department of Public Health for Illinois Body Artist Operator Permit.

(see: Body Artist Operator Permit Application) When filling out form, under “Training, experience ...” Enter “Attending Aphrodite Skin Care LLC’s – Aphrodite Academy of Permanent Cosmetics 6 days training course [date] to [date] 2014.” Must bring your permit to all classes.

Wood River, Illinois 62095
Phone 618/296-6079

Note: If you are coming from out of state, and have a tattoo license, you need to contact State of Illinois for a temporary permit.

- 4) Complete the required pre-class reading material prior to class, by doing so you will begin to understand the terminology, theory, materials, and procedures used in this field, write down any questions you may have and they will be answered in class. By completing this pre-class material you will have more time for hands on sessions.

Contact some of your friends, relatives or other individuals to sign up for your MODEL. You can start developing your own clients, once an individual starts receiving Permanent Cosmetics and they like the results – they will come back to you for further applications. Good word of mouth is the best advertisement.
